

BOHO CLUB MARBELLA

Events & Groups

A small hotel on the Golden Mile, built for the kind of events people talk about afterwards.

A hotel that doesn't feel like a hotel

Five-star, boutique, and on the Golden Mile

Forty rooms and bungalows sit inside 30,000 m² of gardens - small enough that one group can genuinely feel the place belongs to them.

Three things carry it: the gardens, the art and design, and the kitchen. Our Executive Chef is Diego del Río, and for most groups the food is the part they remember.

WHAT GROUPS TAKE IT FOR

Whole-hotel buyouts and corporate retreats · milestone celebrations · client dinners in the Restaurant · garden receptions that run until midnight

Indoors or out

The Restaurant seats 146 under one roof. The gardens take 400 standing. Most groups end up using both across one evening.

One flow, not one room

Canapés in the garden, dinner in the Restaurant, drinks on the Terrace. Nobody has to leave the hotel.

Music until midnight

Amplified music outdoors runs until 00:00 — worth knowing when you plan the running order.

Private use of a space is confirmed per date and is subject to availability.

Bungalow 21

Fire, sun and soul – in the heart of the gardens

Under La Concha, in the middle of the gardens, Bungalow 21 is where lunch is allowed to take its time. The kitchen works with fire and smoke, turning seasonal produce into something you weren't expecting.

It's the easiest space we have for a relaxed group lunch, a lifestyle moment, or a wellness morning.

LUNCH SERVICE

From 12:00

Private use of the space is quoted per date. For a standing reception, cocktail tables and linen come in from an outside supplier, so the set-up is designed around your event.

The Restaurant

Where the evening happens — Executive Chef Diego del Río

Andalusian roots, local produce, fire, and a kitchen that cooks to the season. Diego's food is refined and full of character — the kind of dinner where three courses quietly turn into five.

If the point of your evening is the food, this is the place.
